

Spotlight: We're Pleased to Present...

Eileen Dreyer

Lecture: Success in Genre Fiction

Thursday, Nov. 18
7-8 p.m.

New Venue: Brentwood Borders
1519 S. Brentwood Blvd.
Brentwood, MO 63144

Free and open to the public!

Please register to attend:

Get map and directions.

Eileen Dreyer, best-selling author, addicted traveler and accomplished pub singer, will speak in her hometown of Brentwood and sign her romances and mysteries. She will talk about genre fiction, her discoveries in the writing craft and the state of publishing at Borders Books.

Known as Kathleen Korbel to her Silhouette readers, Dreyer has published 26 Silhouette books, 8 medico-forensic suspenses, and 7 short stories. A retired trauma nurse, Eileen lives in her native St. Louis with her husband, children, and large and noisy Irish family, of which she is the reluctant matriarch. She has animals but refuses to subject them to the limelight.