MATT LARY is a Ph.D. candidate at Saint Louis University, where he teaches classes on Ancient and European History. His chief area of historical research is Renaissance/Reformation Europe. He enjoys the related fields of Archeology and Paleoanthropology and has studied these areas with the American Museum of Natural History in South and Central America and in southern Africa respectively.

Matt is coauthor of Victory Through Valor: A Collection of World War II Memoirs, a collection of stories told by the true heroes of World War II. The book gives us a firsthand look at D-Day, the Battle of the Bulge, and the surrender of Germany in 1945. Victory Through Valor was published with the cooperation of the Gateway Chapter of The Veterans of the Battle of the Bulge in St. Louis, Missouri.
