

Get Critiqued!
SLWG Critique Group Program Workshop
Saturday, September 11th 2010
10 am – 12 pm

Ever thought about joining a critique group but did not know where to start?
Wonder no longer.

To kick off Cycle 3 of SLWG's Cycle Critique Groups we're hosting a feedback workshop. The day will start with a short panel on editing tips and what programs SLWG offers. Then break into smaller genre specific groups to get feedback on your work. It's about helping everyone grow as writers and who knows maybe you'll walk away with a new critique group or writing partner.

Just bring the first 3 pages of your latest masterpiece, a good pen, and an open mind. You'll leave with several informed opinions that you can take with a grain of salt or endlessly obsess over.
